

PE Road Map

To be physically educated on health and wellbeing, learning how to take part as individuals and as a team. To think logically to solve problems. To increase the uptake of children participating and being introduced to different areas of Physical education. Including alternative sports.

