

Italy Knowledge Organiser

There are over 40 different countries in Europe. Some are large and some are very small but they are all different. The countries can be divided into different regions: Northern Europe, Southern Europe, Western Europe and Eastern Europe. Europe is the second smallest continent by size but the third smallest continent by population

Key facts

Population: 60,359,546

Official Language: Italian

Currency: Euro

Area: 301,340km

Capital City: Rome

Other cities: Florence, Venice, Naples, Turin, Pompeii, Milan, and Pisa.

- Italy is in Southern Europe
- Italy is a Mediterranean country
- Italy is located on a peninsula
- Lots of islands are also part of Italy
- The two larger islands are Sardinia and Sicily
- Italy is separated into 20 different regions

Colosseum

Leaning Tower of Pisa

Trevi Fountain

Piazza Navona

Famous human Features

Vocabulary	Definition	Vocabulary	Definition
Continent	A continent is a large solid area of land. Earth has seven continents.	Human Feature	A feature that is linked to humans.
Country	A country is land that is controlled by a single government.	Physical Feature	A line which separates two countries.
Climate	The average weather conditions of a particular place or region	Economy	The way people spend money and the way people make money