

Dear Parents,

Autumn Newsletter No. 9

Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew

A huge well done to our Year 6's who performed at the Haymarket this week, they have spent lots of time practicing and rehearsing since July this year and we are very proud of them. Thank you to Mrs. Clifton and Mrs. Hunjan for organising this event again and thank you to the parents for ferrying the children to and fro from the Haymarket.

Thank you to Sam H

A very special thank you goes to Sam H from Year 4 who gave up his Saturday afternoon during half term to help Spotlight with their bag packing at Tesco despite being poorly. Well done Sam.

Please ensure your children have their winter PE kit in school now as well as their indoor kit:

Indoor: t-shirt and shorts. Outdoor: Tracksuit style top and long trousers. Also for those who play football, please ensure they have suitable trainers for the MUGA.

Rugby Tournament

Our team played at Kings Furlong this week and were fantastic! They beat Kings Furlong 3:0, they beat Park View 3:2, the A Team beat St Anne's 2:0 and the B Team beat St Anne's 3:1. They are a really good team who play very well together and show a great sense of sportsmanship. Thank you again to Mr. Waller who took them along with Miss Miles.
